FOR WORKING INTERPRETERS & INTERPRETING STUDENTS

NIC – Written Examination Prep Course

Facilitated by Susanne Morgan Morrow, MA, CI, CT

Friday, December 3rd 6:00pm - 8:00pm
Saturday December 4th 10:00am - 2:00pm

Preparing for the national exam can be a daunting task. This small interactive weekend study course will review content information covered on the NIC written exam. Working with colleagues and learning the expectations of the exam will ease test anxiety.

This course is specifically designed for interpreters or interpreting students who are planning to take the NIC – Written Examination. This course will focus on the knowledge statements of the 10 tasks identified in the NAD– RID National Interpreter Certification (NIC) Examination Test Outline and other associated content material.

Learner Objectives:

- Familiarize participants with the structure of the NIC exam
- Introduce test preparation strategies for adult learners
- Familiarize participants with the 10 tasks outlined by the National Council on Interpreting Role Delineation Panel
- Facilitate meaningful discussion about each task of the knowledge portion of the NIC exam
- Familiarize participants with suggested reference materials
- Provide a guide for studying applicable materials with each task.
